

MEDICAL INFORMATICS: AN OPEN FORUM ON INFORMATICS AND MEDICAL TEACHING

Presented by the AFMC Resource Group on Medical Informatics
Saturday April 30, 2005
8:30 to 11:30

Please join us as representatives from Canadian faculties of medicine present innovative initiatives and new projects highlighting the use of technology in medical teaching and learning.

All conference attendees are welcome.

Medical Informatics: A Retrospective	University of Toronto Lawrence Spero
Administration of Medical Education Through Database Integration	University of Western Ontario Tracy Mestdagh
Ontario's Collaborative Curriculum Project in Gender and Health	Council of Ontario Faculties of Medicine Shayna Watson
On the Path Towards Open-Source e-Learning Solutions	Queen's University Benjamin Chen
The Day After: Lessons Learned from Implementing an Electronic Medical Curriculum	University of Calgary Hytham Khalil
Functional Specifications for a Question Databank Management System	University of Ottawa Michael Clarke
On-line Case Demonstration & Clerkship Web-Site	University of Western Ontario Cynthia Kenyon
Digital Video Common Currency: Lessons Learned	Dalhousie University Wesley Robertson
MEDICOL: UBC's On-line Curriculum Repository	University of British Columbia Jennifer Smyth
HealthLibrary.ca	McGill University David Fleischer