

2006 Medical Education Conference (London ON)

Conference Goal: To enhance medical education “best practices” in Canada –

Partnerships for Improving Health Care

Conference Objectives:

- to promote collaboration in education, research and health care
- to develop curricular and evaluation strategies for competency based medical education
- to foster dialogue around medical education and continuing professional development to address priority Canadian health needs